

Overview

College of Marin offers community education classes that are fee-based, short-term, not given for credit, and not graded.

Community education classes are offered in a wide variety of subjects such as art, foreign languages, computers, physical fitness and more areas.

These classes are offered in the daytime and evenings, and on Saturdays. Please consult the community education schedule or call 415.485.9305.

The College serves about 1,600 community education students each term. The enrollment for spring 2013 in the Community Education program is 1,684 students.

Gender

The College’s community education student population is composed of 22 percent men and 77 percent women. One percent of students declined to provide this information.

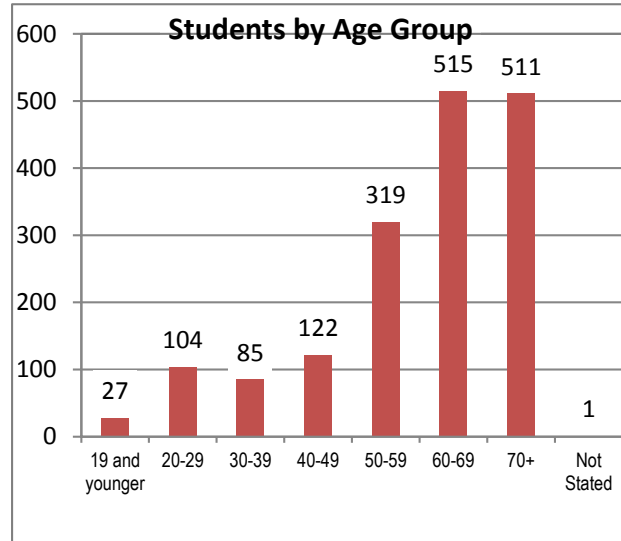

Geographic Origin

Most College of Marin community education students reside in Marin County (93 percent). Of the remaining students, the majority come from San Francisco, the East Bay, and Sonoma County.

Location	Students	%
Central Marin	736	43.7%
Novato	293	17.4%
South Marin	333	19.8%
North San Rafael	169	10.0%
West Marin	34	2.0%
Outside Marin	119	7.1%

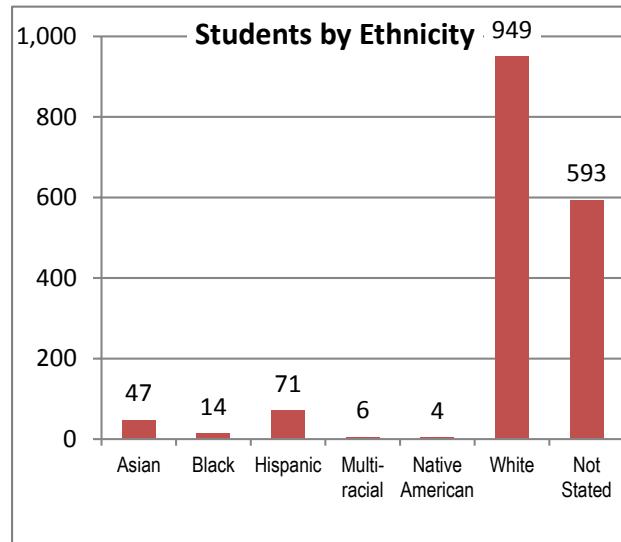

Age of Students

Ninety-two percent of College of Marin community education students are 30 years of age or older. The average age of students is 60 years. The youngest student is 14 and the oldest is over 80.

Ethnicity

The following chart indicates a breakdown by ethnic groups. Thirty-five percent of students do not report this information.

Community Education Student Characteristics is produced by the Research Office at College of Marin. The data reflects spring 2013 end of term enrollment extracted from the student information database.